

Champagne

Pannier, Brut Selection	£30.00
Deutz, Brut Classic	£36.00

White Wine

Sancerre, 'Clos des Bouffants', Loire Traditional vinification yields a delicious and lightly elegant wine with considerable concentration.	£21.90
Gewurztraminer, 'Tradition', Alsace This lovely dry but flowery wine is highly distinctive and pungently individual.	£18.50
Petit Chablis, Domaine Seguinot, Burgundy Pale gold colour wine, crisply dry, with medium body.	£19.50
Macon Lugny, Caves de lugny, Burgundy This is a fruity wine with crisp acidity. Medium body.	£17.50 Half £ 9.50
Black Label Sauvignon Blanc, Mc Guigan Wines, Australia Dryish, yet full of flavour, softly rounded with a crisp finish.	£14.50
Waterstone Bridge Reserve Chardonnay, Gapsted Wines, Australia Rich and elegant wine from the Victoria region.	£15.50
Mud House, Marlborough, Sauvignon Blanc, New Zealand An elegant wine with hints of Gooseberry and tropical fruits.	£18.50

Rose Wine

Cotes de Provence, "Chateau la Gordonne" An old favourite!	£12.50
Rose Coeur de Grain, Chateau de Selle, Domaine Ott One of the world's finest roses, it is from the Cote de Provence.	£31.50

Sweet Wine

Muscat de Beaumes de Venise, Domaine de Coyeux, Yves Nativelle One of the largest, and best know domaines of the Rhone, and the dominant producer of this sweet luscious local speciality	£24.50
Chateau Chante l'Oiseau, Sauternes	Half £14.50

Red Wine

Chateau des Cedres Rouge, Bordeaux A soft and rounded petit Château, predominantly Merlot with a small proportion of Cabernet.	£14.50 Half £ 8.50
Fleurie, Le Mont, Domain Thevenet Although excellent to enjoy when relatively young, it develops a soft and ripely delicate depth of flavour as it becomes older	£18.50
Chateau Lalande, Bordeaux Well coloured and full bodied, a rather old fashioned weighty style St Julien.	£28.00
Chateau Haut Baillan, Bordeaux A soft and rounded, easy drinking claret with a predominance of Merlot grape.	£18.00
Cotes du Ventoux, 'Les Traverses', Rhone An interesting alternative to a Cotes du Rhone, ripely fruity.	£13.90
Campofiorin, Vino Tipico Veronese, Italy Fairly soft style with excellent fruit and body.	£20.50
Black Label Shiraz, Mc Guigan Wines, Australia Medium bodied, garnet red in colour, good weight and fruit.	£14.50
Mud House, Hawke's Bay Merlot, New Zealand Redcurrant, tobacco leaf and plum flavours. A wine with good body.	£18.50

House Wine

Andes Peak, Sauvignon Blanc, Chile A really appealing fruity, wine with a crisply dry character and stylish softness.	£12.50 Glass £ 3.00
Andes Peak, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chile Lovely ruby colour, with a ripe and creamy fruit, deeply flavoured.	£11.50 Glass £ 3.00
Pinot Grigio Rose, "Ancora"	£11.50 Glass £ 3.00
Piesporter Michelsberg, Schmitt Sohne	£11.50 Glass £ 3.00
Château Les Rosiers, Montbazillac	Glass £ 4.00